

Dr. Bakri Musa Abdul Karim

Dr. Bakri Musa Abdul Karim is a highly esteemed and accomplished individual within the realms of education management, governance, and political strategy. Currently residing at 107 Judges Bench CT, Morrisville, NC 27560, Dr. Karim's professional journey reflects a commitment to excellence, service, and scholarly endeavor.

With a robust background in academia, Dr. Karim has pursued a rigorous academic path, culminating in a PhD in Information Management from the University of Wales, UK, attained in 1997. Prior to this, he completed a Master's degree in Information Science in 1981, followed by a Graduate Diploma in Librarianship in 1980, all from the University of Wales, UK. Dr. Karim's academic journey began with a B.Sc. (Honors) in Economics from the University of Khartoum, Sudan, in 1978. His dedication to professional development is further evidenced by his certification as a Knowledge Manager from the Institute of Knowledge Management, Washington DC, USA, in 2010.

Throughout his distinguished career, Dr. Karim has held a variety of prestigious positions, each reflecting his expertise and commitment to advancing education and knowledge sharing. Notably, he has served as a Professor of International Development, Dean of the Faculty of International Relations and Diplomatic Studies, Director of the Center of Global Education, and Director of International Relations and Knowledge Management at The National University, Sudan. His contributions extend beyond academia, with impactful roles such as Head of Information & Knowledge Services at the African Development Institute and Council Member at the African Training and Management Services Foundation (ATMS).

Dr. Karim's dedication to scholarship and research is evident in his extensive publication record and participation in academic conferences. His contributions to the field include articles published in esteemed journals such as the Arab Journal of Higher Education Research and the International Library Review. Additionally, Dr. Karim has presented at international conferences, including notable appearances at the Institute of Development Studies (IDS), University of Sussex, England, and the International Conference on African Digital Libraries and Archives (ICADLA).

Furthermore, Dr. Karim has been involved in significant collaborative projects and initiatives aimed at advancing education, fostering strategic partnerships, and promoting knowledge sharing. Noteworthy among these endeavors is his role as Editor-in-Chief of Capacity Focus Magazine at the African Development Bank, where he played a pivotal role in disseminating knowledge and insights to a broad audience.

Dr. Karim's professional accomplishments underscore his unwavering dedication to excellence, service, and the advancement of knowledge within the field of education and beyond.